

Unprecedented coverage of EU related case law

[Luxembourg, 22 November 2007]: In Europe legal professionals' use of foreign national case law has traditionally been weak. This picture may change with Caselex which now has brought its offering of cross-border case law linked to the application of EU law to new heights with the addition of four new jurisdictions, bringing the total coverage to 21 European countries.

Legal inspiration from 21 European countries and 3 European courts

Caselex' premium online service offers currently its users interpretation of EU law through the most important case law of the national courts, implying the national Supreme Courts and the High Courts, in 21 European countries. In addition it covers cases of the European Court of Justice, the Court of First Instance, and the EFTA Court.

Focus on commercial law

Through a network of legal correspondents across Europe, Caselex selects only EU related cases of use across borders. Each case is summarised in English to complement the full text in the native language.

The following practice areas are covered:

1. Company law
2. Competition law
3. Consumer protection law
4. Intellectual Property law
5. Labour law

Additional practice areas, including Information, Communication and Technology law, will follow.

About Caselex

Caselex is the first premium information service providing access to the most important national and European case law linked to EU law. An easy to use online service holding exclusive case digests in English allows legal professionals to easily use foreign cases relevant to their work or study. Full texts and case digests can be translated from any European source language on demand.

Caselex s.a.r.l. rolls out its service in collaboration with Istituto di Teoria e Tecniche dell'Informazione Giuridica (Italy), Justis Publishing (UK), JSC Leksanova (Lithuania), and vLEX (Spain).

The service is supported by the European Commission's DG Information Society, the Council of Bars and Law Societies of Europe (CCBE), the European Company Lawyers Association (ECLA) and the European Association of Judges (EAJ).
